The image shows the storefront of a Japanese stationery shop. The entrance is wide, with a dark interior. On the left, a large window display features a pink sign with the text '年賀はがき 年中はがき 印刷 承ります' (New Year postcards, Mid-year postcards, Printing accepted). Below the sign is a large, colorful calendar. To the right of the entrance, a large stack of green and white patterned postcards is displayed on a black stand. Further right, a rack of various stationery items is visible. On the far right, a display of colorful postcards and a small table with a yellow basket are visible. The shop is decorated with a string of white paper lanterns hanging across the entrance. The building has a brown awning over the entrance.
